- Optimize Opex: Since Opex remains flat regardless of profit peaks, investigate fixed costs to improve the EBITDA margin.
- Improve Collection Cycle: Target the 31–60-day aging bucket to shift more receivables into the 0–30-day window to accelerate cash availability.
- Investigate Regional Parity: Explore why all regions perform identically; there may be untapped growth potential in specific high-density markets.

5.Conclusion

- The company is in a strong financial position, with well-balanced revenue across regions and a steady improvement in cash flow.
- By reducing the gap between planned and actual revenue and improving the collections process, the company can further strengthen its financial performance in the coming year.
